Due to the fact that the shares were initially inherited as a trust, both David and Doris should be listed as having combined ownership. Everything else in your report is fine, so I will not require you to submit another revision stating that information. For future reference, it may be beneficial to create a footnote stating that the shares were initially inherited as a trust; thereby giving both parties involved combined ownership. Thank you for your time and patience in resolving this matter. All necessary information has been received, and nothing else is required from you at this time.
